

Recently SLCFD held a graduation for their first Citizen Fire Academy. The class members had participated in 6 information sessions, which included a tour of the Emergency Operations Center and of the Treasure Coast Public Safety Complex. They also were able to see demonstrations of different fire equipment including Air Rescue and the ARFF truck, which is used for aircraft emergencies. The next class begins in early May. A brochure about the program and an application is on the SLCFD website.

