Keck and Mikels named Employees of the Quarter for St. Lucie County Fire District

Program honors a civilian employee and a firefighter each quarter

St. Lucie County, FL – Barbara Keck was recently named Employee of the Quarter and Dan Mikels was named Firefighter of the Quarter by the St. Lucie County Fire District. Both were honored at the Fire Board Meeting held on Wednesday, April 21.

Barbara has been with the Fire District since September 1997 and works in Ambulance Billing. She was cited for her work in the community, including past president of the Pilot Club, Anchor Club of John Carroll High School, and Alzheimer's Community Care. In addition, she works with five high schools assisting with special needs children.

FF/Paramedic Dan Mikels has been with SLCFD since September 2005 and is currently at Station #17 on the B Shift. Dan was nominated for his willingness to train others, including IRSC students and other SLCFD employees. Dan recently completed his Bachelors degree and is currently working towards his Masters degree.

This is a new program for the Fire District which evolved through the Strategic Planning process. Quarterly winners are selected by an Employee Awards Committee and selected from those nominated by fellow employees.
