Swearing In Ceremony

Fire District Officially Welcomes 16 New Firefighters

St. Lucie County, FL – This Friday, the Fire District will officially welcome sixteen new firefighters in a swearing-in ceremony. Over the last six-weeks, under the supervision of the Training & Safety Division the recruits were put through a rigorous orientation that tested their physical & mental agility. They are now ready to join the ranks and anxious to begin.

What: A pinning and swearing-in ceremony for new firefighters.

When: May 31, 2024; 2:00PM

Where: Calvary Chapel in Port St. Lucie * 5555 NW St. James Drive

Who: Fire District Administration, Fire Board Commissioners, personnel and family members will gather to recognize and welcome St. Lucie County's newest firefighters

Why: “We are excited to announce the addition of 16 new firefighters to our team. This expansion will help us staff our new fire station, set to open in January 2025. We look forward to the dedication and bravery these members will bring to our community.”

-Fire Chief Jeff Lee
