St. Lucie County Fire District Plans Next Citizen Fire Academy Class

St. Lucie County, FL – The St. Lucie County Fire District will be holding its next Citizen Fire Academy, starting Thursday, September 23. The Academy is for residents who want to learn more about their Fire District and how they handle emergencies.

The Fire Academy is a series of 6 sessions and is free to St. Lucie County residents. Sessions will meet weekly, starting at 5 p.m.

Participants tour the Emergency Operations Center and the Treasure Coast Public Safety Complex. Sessions cover: home safety, fire prevention, tactical rescues, and hazardous materials. Demonstrations include the Airport Rescue and Firefighting truck (ARFF), Air Rescue, and more.

Citizens interested are encouraged to log on to the Fire District website – www.slcfd.com/cfa.htm – to learn more and fill out an application.
