

St. Lucie County Fire District News Release

Vachon Promoted to Lieutenant by St. Lucie County Fire District

St. Lucie County, FL – Dane Vachon was promoted to Lieutenant by the St. Lucie County Fire District. Vachon has been with the Fire District since February 2005. He became a paramedic for the Fire District in September 2006. He also served as a Field Training Officer.

Vachon has his AS degree from Indian River State College in Emergency Medical Services; his BS degree from Columbia Southern University in Fire Science; and is seeking his MS in Emergency Services Management. He is a member of the medical review board, the EMS operations committee and the water rescue team for the Fire District.

Lt. Vachon is assigned to Fire Station #16, located at 3910 SW Port St. Lucie Blvd, in southern St. Lucie County. Fire Station #16 opened in 2008 and receives over 2,000 emergency calls a year.

Fire Chief, Ron Parrish and Lt. Vachon