St. Lucie County Fire Board of Commissioners Selects New Fire District Attorney

PORT ST. LUCIE, FL – On Wednesday, March 29, 2017 the St. Lucie County Fire Board of Commissioners selected Kim Sabol as the new Fire District Attorney. After a lengthy process with over 100 applicants, Sabol was chosen over four other finalists interviewed by the Commissioners.

Kim Sabol is currently the Staff Attorney and Labor/Employment Representative for the Martin County School District and has served as their district's Chief Negotiator for labor contracts. She has been an attorney in Florida for 24 years and served as an Assistant State Attorney for the 19th Judicial Circuit of Florida.

Attorney Sabol received her Juris Doctorate degree from the College of Law at Stetson University (was a member of the International Legal Honor Society of Phi Delta Phi) and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Florida State University. Sabol has also served on the Board of Directors for the Florida Educational Negotiators, a statewide management organization that assists its members in the field of employee and labor relations; she served as the Secretary in 2011-2012 and President in 2014-2015.
